

CHAPTER IV.

An Act to amend an act entitled an act to provide for a general system of Common Schools, the officers thereof and their respective duties and powers.

SECTION 1. Amendment to Section 33. Teacher to procure register from District Clerk—to keep daily record of attendance and other matters as may be required.

2. When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

SECTION 1. That section 33 of an act entitled an act to provide for a general system of common schools, the officers thereof, and their respective powers and duties, approved March 6th, 1862, be and is hereby so amended as to read as follows :

Section 33. It shall be the duty of the teacher to procure a register for his school from the clerk of the district, to keep a daily record of attendance and of such other matters as may be required in such register, and to receive all persons sent to him between the ages of five and twenty-one years; Provided, That older persons may attend school under any arrangement with the board of trustees; Provided, however, That the board of trustees shall have sole power to determine who shall attend school from other districts, and the terms on which they may attend; and no persons shall have any right to attend school out of his district, unless in accordance with an arrangement with the Board of trustees of the district where such person proposes to attend school, who may at their discretion admit scholars from an adjoining district; Provided further, That the board of trustees may expel any scholar from school for insubordination, immorality or infectious disease. But if any child of suitable age shall be denied admission, or any scholar expelled without sufficient cause, or on account of color, social position, or nationality, the teacher so offending, or the board of trustees by whose direction the offence was committed,

Teacher to procure register from district clerk—to keep daily record of attendance and other matters as may be required

Penalty for violation of provisions of this act shall forfeit and pay a fine of fifty dollars for each offence, which may be recovered by suit before any justice of the peace in the county, or court having competent jurisdiction thereof, which suit may be brought by any legal voter of the town, said fine to be applied to the use of the district.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 3, 1864.

CHAPTER V.

An Act supplementary to an act entitled an act in relation to the Redemption of Land sold for Taxes, and relating to Taxes and Tax Sales.

- SECTION 1. Conveyances of forfeited lands before redemption—County Auditor to deliver to purchaser certificate of sale—what to contain.
2. Duty of County Auditor making such sale.
  3. Rights of persons claiming any title or interest to said premises.
  4. Rights of persons claiming any interest adverse to the claim of the purchaser.
  5. In case title of purchaser shall be adjudged invalid, said purchaser may retain lien of the State upon said premises.
  6. When lands so sold may be redeemed.
  7. Expenses in the several counties for tax sales—how paid.
  8. Lands remaining unsold and taxes due thereon, remaining unpaid, shall be advertised and sold as provided by law.
  9. Lands not legally advertised and sold under former laws, may be sold under provisions of this act.
  10. When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

SECTION 1. At any time before any tract or parcel of land forfeited to the State under the provisions of chapter four of the general laws of 1862, being an act in relation to the redemption of lands sold for taxes, and relating to taxes and tax sales, approved March